Dear NAPIM Member:

In order to protect your personal and company interests while attendng NAPIM meetings, our policy of compliance with all antitrust laws is always strictly followed. Penalties for violation of antitrust laws include severe fines and imprisonment, so we urge you to follow these guidelines before , during and after our meetings.

1. Do not discuss prices (including price increase and pricing methods), discounts, terms of sale, the refusal to deal with another company, or profit margins with any representative of any association member company.
2. Do not make any announcements about your prices or those of competitors
3. Do not talk about the plans of individual companies (yours or competitors') regarding specific geographic or product makets or regarding particular customers.
4. If in doubt about the propriety of any subject or activity, consult NAPIM counsel.

For each meeting, an agenda and minutes are prepared, both of which are reviewed by counsel before they are distributed. Counsele also attends NAPIM meetings, as apporprate, to ensure that the association antitrust policy is observed at all times.

If you have any questions please contact us.
