EXCERPTS FROM NAPIM BY-LAWS

ARTICLE III – OBJECTS

Section 1 The objects of the Association shall be

(1) To consider and deal with those common intra-industry problems of management, such as those involved in the production, distribution, employment and financial functions of the Printing Ink Industry, to secure cooperative action in advancing the common purposes of its members, foster equity in business usages, and promote activities aimed to enable the industry to conduct itself with the greatest economy and efficiency.

(2) To give proper consideration and expression of opinion upon questions affecting the industry and the financial, commercial, and industrial interest of the country.

(3) To cooperate with other industries and organizations.

(4) To do anything necessary and proper for the accomplishment of any object herein set forth or which shall be recognized as proper and lawful objectives of trade associations, all of which shall be consistent and the public interest, as well as in the interest of this industry and trade.

ARTICLE IV – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1 The membership of this Association shall consist of the following classes as described in detail below.

Active Member Any individual or entity engaged in the manufacture of printing inks in the United States of America, its territories and dependencies (or outside the U.S. whose application to the Board of Directors is approved by the Executive Committee.)

Associate Member Any individual or entity engaged in the manufacture of printing inks in the United States of America, its territories and dependencies, for sale or use primarily by a subsidiary, parent or otherwise affiliated company.

Technical Associate Member Any individual or entity engaged in the commercial manufacture and/or sale of raw materials, containers, equipment or other miscellaneous products used in the manufacturing, packaging or delivering of printing inks in the United States of America.

Alumni Member Any individual or entity who previously worked in printing ink manufacturing or a related industry and is now retired from that profession.

Academic Member Any accredited educational institution including universities, colleges, technical and trade schools.

Other Related Trade Association Member Any domestic trade association that relates to the printing ink industry and has a common interest with the Association. For the avoidance of doubt, members of an Other Related Trade Association must separately be a Member, Associate Member, Technical Associate Member and/or Alumni Member of the Association.

Affiliated Association Member Bona fide printing ink manufacturers associations from countries outside the U.S. may become Members of the Association, while maintaining full responsibility and independence for their own activities.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS

Section 2 Any person, firm or corporation eligible to membership under these By-Laws on making written application therefore, may be elected to membership. For such an election, a majority of the votes of the Board of Directors is required.

VOTING

Section 3 Each active member shall have but one vote. Each active member firm and corporation shall appoint and certify to the secretary of the Association a member or an officer to be its representative in the Association and who shall represent, vote, and act for the member in all the affairs of the Association, including the holding of office therein. No others may hold office.

RESIGNATIONS

Section 5 Any member may, by giving written notice of such intentions, withdraw from membership. Such notice shall be presented to the Board of Directors at its next succeeding meeting. Withdrawal shall be effective upon fulfillment of all dues obligations, which includes payment of all delinquent dues and payment for the quarter in which the notice of resignation is received.

ARTICLE V – DUES

Section 1 The annual dues of the Association shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 2 Payment of dues shall be made quarterly.

Section 3 New members shall pay dues for the quarter in which application for membership is made, unless otherwise directed by the Board of Directors. Members delinquent in dues of a period of one calendar quarter, or longer, may be suspended or expelled by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.
